

Table of Contents

Foreword to the English Edition.	xvii
Foreword to the Italian Edition.	xix
Preface to the Italian Edition.	xxiii
Translator's Note.	xxvii
List of the Abbreviations	xxix
Introduction.	1
1. The history of canon law	2
1.1 The importance of the history of canon law.	4
1.2 A general glance at the history of canon law	5
2. The history of the sources: notions and divisions	7
2.1 Fundamental types of sources	7
2.2 The division of the sources	8
2.2.1 Based on the legislator	8
2.2.2 Based on the extension of the norm	10
2.2.3 Based on the historical genuineness.	10
2.2.4 Based on the method.	10
2.2.5 Based on the juridical authority	11
2.2.6 Based on the periods of the history of the sources of canon law	13
3. The sources in general	14
3.1 Sacred Scripture	14
3.2 Tradition	15
3.3 Councils.	16
3.4 The actions of the Roman Pontiffs.	18

3.5 The secondary sources of the collections of canon law	19
3.5.1 Civil law	19
3.5.2 Theological texts	21
3.5.3 Monastic rules	22
3.5.4 Fathers, saints, doctors and authors	22
3.5.5 Historical facts	23

THE FIRST PERIOD
THE PATRISTIC ERA: FROM THE BEGINNING
TO THE EIGHTH CENTURY (FIRST–EIGHTH CENTURIES)

Chapter I. The Pseudo-Apostolic Collections (First–Third Centuries)	29
Preface	29
Introduction	32
1. Fundamental works	36
1.1 The Didachè	36
1.2 The apostolic tradition	38
1.3 The Didaskalia Apostolorum	40
1.4 Canones Ecclesiastici Sanctorum Apostolorum	42
1.5 The 85 apostolic canons	43
1.6 The Testamentum Domini Nostri Jesu Christi	45
2. The collections	45
2.1 Constitutiones Apostolicæ	46
2.2 Collectio Codicis Veronensis	48
2.3 Octatheuchus Clementis	48
3. Other works	49
3.1 Constitutiones by Hippolytum (Epitome)	49
3.2 Canones Hippolyti	49

Chapter II. The Collections of the Councils (Fourth–Fifth Centuries)	51
Introduction	51

1. Conciliar legislation and its documents.....	54
1.1 Written documents of councils.....	57
1.1.1 Acts of councils.....	57
1.1.2 Allocutions, solemn discourses.....	57
1.1.3 Litteræ Synodales.....	57
1.1.4 Anathemas.....	58
1.1.5 Professions of faith.....	58
1.1.6 Conciliar canons.....	58
2. Technical and regional character of the collections	58
2.1 The regional character.....	58
2.2 Technical-formal elements.....	59
2.2.1 Problems of reconstruction and attribution.....	59
3. The collections of the East.....	63
3.1 Syntagma Canonum or Syntagma Antiochenæ or Corpus Canonum Orientale.....	64
4. The collections of the West.....	65
4.1 The collections of Africa.....	65
4.1.1 Breviarium Hipponense.....	66
4.1.2 Codex Apiarii Causæ.....	67
4.1.3 Registri Ecclesiæ Carthaginensis Excerpta.....	68
4.2 The collections of Gaul.....	69
4.2.1 Collectio Concilii Arelatensis Secundi (Arles).....	71
4.2.2 Statuta Ecclesiæ Antiqua.....	71
4.2.3 Collectio Andegavensis Prima (Angers).....	73
4.3 The collections of Italy.....	73
4.3.1 Vetus Romana (Versio Antiqua Romana).....	74
4.3.2 Versio Isidoriana or Hispana.....	75
4.3.3 Versio Itala or Prisca.....	76
4.4 The collections of Spain.....	76
5. Papal legislation and the first collections of decretals.....	78

Chapter III. The Development of the Collections (Sixth–Eighth Centuries)	81
1. The historical situation, legislative activity, and technique of the collections	81
2. Byzantine collections (sixth–eighth centuries) . .	85
2.1 Collectio LX Titulorum	85
2.2 Collectio L Titulorum (Synagogè of John the Scholastic)	86
2.3 Collectio Trullana	87
2.4 Tripartita	89
2.5 Collections of Nomocanons	89
2.5.1 Nomocanon L Titulorum	89
2.5.2 Nomocanon XIV Titulorum	90
3. The last collections of Africa	90
3.1 Breviarium Canonum Fulgentii Ferrandi . .	91
3.2 Concordia Canonum Cresconii	92
4. Roman collections at the beginning of the sixth century	93
4.1 Collectio Frisingensis	95
4.2 Collectio Quesnelliana	97
4.3 Collectio Dionysiana	98
4.3.1 The Liber Canonum	99
4.3.2 The Liber Decretalium	100
4.3.3 Collectio Dionysiana Bobiensis	101
4.3.4 The merits and influence of the Collectio Dionysiana	101
5. Other collections of Italy	103
5.1 Collectiones Universales	103
5.1.1 Collectio Sanblasiana	103
5.1.2 Collectio Vaticana (Vat. Lat. 1342) . . .	104
5.1.3 Collectio Teatina or Codex Ingilramni	105
5.2 Collectiones Decretalium	105
5.2.1 Collectio Thessalonicensis (531)	105
5.2.2 Collectio Avellana	106
5.3 Collectiones a Dionysiana descendentes . . .	107
5.3.1 Collectio Codicis Parisiensis (Cod. Lat. 3558, Paris)	107

5.3.2	Collectio Theodosii Diaconi.....	107
5.3.3	Collectio di Wurzburg	107
5.3.4	Collectio Colbertina.....	107
6.	The collections of Visigothic Spain.....	108
6.1	Liber Complutensis	110
6.2	Collectio Novariensis.....	111
6.3	Capitula Martini.....	111
6.4	Epitome Hispanica.....	112
6.5	Collectio Hispana.....	113
6.5.1	Isidoriana	113
6.5.2	Forma Iuliana.....	114
6.5.3	Forma Vulgata	114
6.5.4	Excerpta	116
6.5.5	Hispana Systematica.....	117
6.5.6	Tabulæ Hispanæ	117
7.	The Collections of Gallia Merovingica.....	117
7.1	The individual collections.....	119
7.1.1	Collections composed in the region of the Rhône (sixth century).....	119
7.1.2	Collections composed in the north of Gaul (seventh–eighth centuries)...	120
7.2	Collectio Vetus Gallica.....	121
8.	The island collections	123
8.1	Collectio Hibernensis.....	124
9.	The Penitentials	126
9.1	The penitential books: development.....	130
9.1.1	Period I: from the beginning until the middle of the sixth century	131
9.1.1.1	Breton penitentials.....	131
9.1.1.2	Irish penitentials	132
9.1.2	Period II: the flourishing of the penitential books from 650 to the Carolingian reform	134
9.1.2.1	Island penitentials	134

THE SECOND PERIOD
FROM THE CAROLINGIAN ERA TO GRATIAN
(EIGHTH CENTURY–1140)

Chapter IV. The Era of the Carolingian Reform (Eighth–Ninth Centuries)	141
Introduction	141
1. The collections of the period of disintegration.	147
1.1 The canonical collections	147
1.1.1 Collectio Andegavensis II	147
1.1.2 Collectio Herovalliana	148
1.1.3 Collectio I Cod. Bonævallis	149
1.1.4 Collectio II Cod. Bonævallis	149
1.2 Penitential books	149
2. The collections of the Carolingian reform.	150
2.1 Collectio Dionysio-Hadriana (774)	151
2.2 Hadriana-Hispana	154
2.3 Collectio Dacheriana	154
2.4 The new penitential books	157
2.4.1 Pœnitentiale Hattigaris	158
2.4.2 Quadripartitus	158
2.4.3 Pœnitentiale Pseudo-Theodori	159
2.4.4 Two penitential books of Rabanus Maurus	159
2.5 Capitula Episcoporum	160
2.6 Other collections	163
3. The false collections	164
3.1 Collectio Hispana Augustodunensis	175
3.2 Capitula Angilramni	176
3.3 Capitularia Benedicti Levitæ	177
3.4 Pseudo-Isidorian Decretals (847–852)	180
 Chapter V. From the Crisis of the Carolingian World to Gratian’s Decretum (Tenth Century–1140)	 187
Introduction	187

1. Collections of the post-Carolingian and imperial reform	190
1.1 Germany	193
1.1.1 Libri Duo de Synodalibus Causis (Reginon of Prüm).....	193
1.1.2 Collection Remedio Curiensi Adscripta.....	196
1.2 Gallia	197
1.2.1 The Liber Canonum of Abbo, abbot of Fleury.....	197
1.3 Italy.....	199
1.3.1 Collectio Anselmo Dedicata.....	199
2. The collections of the pre-Gregorian reform	201
2.1 Collection quinque librorum (Cod. Ms. Vat. Lat. 1339).....	204
2.2 Decretum Burchardi Wormatiensis (The Decretum of Burchard of Worms).....	205
2.3 Collectio Duodecim Partium	212
3. The collections of the Gregorian reform.....	213
3.1 The Roman collections.....	220
3.1.1 Breviarium Cardinalis Attonis.....	220
3.1.2 Dictatus Papae.....	221
3.1.3 Collectio LXXIV Titulorum	226
3.1.4 Collectio Anselmi Lucensis	229
3.1.5 Collectio Cardinalis Deusdedit	234
3.1.6 The Liber de Vita Christiana of Bonizone of Sutri.....	237
3.1.7 Collectio Britannica.....	239
3.1.8 Collectio duorum librorum (Cod. Ms. 3832 Bibl. Vatic.).....	240
3.2 The other collections	241
3.2.1 Liber Tarraconensis.....	241
3.2.2 Collectio Burdigalensis (Collectio septem librorum).....	242
3.2.3 Collectio quinque librorum (Ms. Vat. Lat. 1348)	242
3.2.4 Collectio XVII librorum	243

3.2.5	Collection IV librorum	244
3.2.6	Collectio S. Mariæ Novellæ	244
4.	Other collections of the Gregorian reform	245
4.1	The Roman collections	246
4.1.1	Polycarpus	246
4.1.2	Collectio III librorum	248
4.1.3	Collectio IX librorum	249
4.2	Other collections	249
4.2.1	The collections of Yves of Chartres	249
4.2.1.1	Tripartita	251
4.2.1.2	Decretum	252
4.2.1.3	Panormia	254
4.2.2	Collections dependent on Yves of Chartres	257
4.2.2.1	Collectio Cæsaraugustana	257
4.2.2.2	Collectio Sanctæ Genovevæ (Paris)	259
4.2.2.3	Collection Cod. Ms. 425 Bib. Atrebatensis	259
4.2.2.4	Collectio S. Germani de Pratis IX librorum	260
4.2.2.5	Collectio X partium	260
4.2.2.6	Summa Decretorum Haimonis	261
4.2.2.7	Duæ Collectiones Catalaunenses	262
4.2.2.8	Collection of the Chapter of St. Ambrose of Milan	262
4.2.3	Collections not dependent on Yves of Chartres	262
4.2.3.1	Collectio canonum in XIII librum	263
4.2.3.2	Collectio IX librorum Sancti Victoris	263
4.2.3.3	Collectio Taurinensis VII librorum	264
4.2.3.4	Collectio VIII partium (Assisiensis)	264

4.2.3.5	Collectio VII librorum (Ms. Vat. Lat. 1346)	264
4.2.3.6	Collectio Pragensis I	265
4.2.3.7	Collection 903 Bib. Taurinensis	265
	Chapter VI. Canonical Science in the First Millennium	267
	General Bibliography	279

Copyright (c) Midwest Theological Forum
More Information Available at www.theologicalforum.org