Table of Contents

Table of Contents ........................................... vii
Abbreviations ............................................. xiii
Introduction ............................................... 1

Chapter I
Presuppositions to the General Administrative Procedure in the Church ........................................... 5
1.1 – The Divine Origin of the Power of Governance in the Church ........................................... 5
1.2 – The Power of Governance and its Threefold Distinction ........................................... 10
1.2.1 – Legislative Power ......................................... 14
1.2.2 – Judicial Power ............................................ 15
1.2.3 – Executive Power ........................................... 18
1.2.4 – The Distinction of Judicial Power and Executive Power ........................................... 20
1.3 – The Notion of Canonical Administrative Law ........................................... 24
1.4 – The Singular Administrative Act ........................................... 27
1.5 – The Notions of \textit{Processus} and \textit{Procedura} in Canonical Doctrine

1.5.1 – The Term \textit{Processus} in the \textit{Ius vetus}

1.5.2 – \textit{Procedura administrativa} and Its Distinction from \textit{Processus [iudicialis]}

Chapter II
The Introduction of a General Administrative Procedure into Canon Law

2.1 – The General Administrative Procedure in the History of the Project of the \textit{Lex de procedura administrativa}

2.2 – The Substance of the Draft Canons on the General Administrative Procedure

2.2.1 – The Procedure Proper

2.2.2 – Administrative Silence

2.2.3 – Motives for the Decree

2.2.4 – Communication of the Decree

Conclusion

Chapter III
The Nature of the General Administrative Procedure for the Formation of a Singular Administrative Act

3.1 – The Purpose of the General Administrative Procedure

3.1.1 – Material Function

3.1.2 – Formal Function

3.1.3 – Preventative Function

3.1.4 – Protective Function
Table of Contents

3.2 – The Notion of the General Administrative Procedure .............................................................. 118
  3.2.1 – Basic Distinctions ........................................ 118
  3.2.2 – Description and Definition ............................... 120
3.3 – The Non-Invalidating Character of the Norms of the General Administrative Procedure .............................................................. 124
3.4 – Consequences of the Non-observance of Administrative Procedural Norms .................. 131

Chapter IV

Phases of the Procedure for the Formation of a Coercive Administrative Decision ............... 135
  4.1 – Initiation of the Procedure ........................................ 137
  4.2 – Instruction ...................................................................... 139
    4.2.1 – Information .............................................................. 141
    4.2.2 – Proofs ....................................................................... 143
  4.3 – Hearing Individual Subjects ........................................ 145
    4.3.1 – The Character of the Hearing .................................... 147
    4.3.2 – Those to Be Heard .................................................... 150
  4.4 – Evaluation ................................................................. 156
  4.5 – Administrative Silence ................................................. 158
  4.6 – Externalization ............................................................. 167
    4.6.1 – Written Form ............................................................ 167
    4.6.2 – Motivation ............................................................... 170
  4.7 – Intimation of the Act ..................................................... 173
  Conclusion ........................................................................ 175
CHAPTER V
THE GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE IN THE CONTENTIOUS-ADMINISTRATIVE JURISPRUDENCE OF THE APOTOLIC SIGNATURA .......................................................... 179
5.1 – General Principles .............................................. 182
5.2 – Particular Procedural Elements ......................... 185
   5.2.1 – Summoning a Party ....................................... 186
   5.2.2 – Hearing Those Whose Rights Could Be Injured .......................................................... 186
   5.2.3 – Making Just Reply to Requests .................. 189
   5.2.4 – The Form of the Administrative Decision .......................................................... 190
   5.2.5 – Communication of the Decree ....................... 193
5.3 – The Right of Defence ........................................... 194
5.4 – Special Administrative Procedures .................... 196
Conclusions ..................................................................... 199

CHAPTER VI
THE REFORM OF THE NORMS GOVERNING THE PROCEDURE FOR THE FORMATION OF A SINGULAR ADMINISTRATIVE ACT .................. 201
6.1 – Dissatisfaction of Doctrine with the Ius vigens .......................................................... 201
   6.1.1 – General Critiques of the Ius vigens .............. 202
   6.1.2 – Critique of Canon 50 of the CIC ................. 206
   6.1.3 – Orientations for a Reform of the General Administrative Procedure 208
   6.1.4 – Technical Criteria for a Reform .................. 212
6.2 – Sources for the Reform of the Procedure ............. 215
   6.2.1 – Procedural Rules Governing Particular Administrative Acts .................. 216
Table of Contents

6.2.1.1 – Coercive Administrative Acts .............................................. 217
6.2.1.2 – Provisions ................................... 222
6.2.1.3 – Rescripts ..................................... 224
6.2.1.4 – Conclusions ............................... 229

6.2.2 – Canonical Norms Governing the Judicial Process ......................... 232

6.2.2.1 – General Principles and Elements ........................................ 234
  6.2.2.1.1 – The Principle of the Right of Defence .... 234
  6.2.2.1.2 – The Principle of Celerity ..................... 236
  6.2.2.1.3 – The Protection of the Public Good ...... 237
  6.2.2.1.4 – The Right to Technical Assistance ................. 240

6.2.2.2 – Dynamic Elements ................................................ 242
  6.2.2.2.1 – Introductory Elements ............................. 242
  6.2.2.2.2 – Instructional Elements ..................... 245
  6.2.2.2.3 – The Element of Debate .................. 246
  6.2.2.2.4 – Elements of the Document-Act ......... 247

6.2.2.3 – Conclusions ......................................................... 248

6.2.3 – General Principles of Secular Administrative Procedure ................. 250
  6.2.3.1 – Secular Administrative Law as a Resource for Canonical Reform .............................................. 250