Faith and Revelation:

Knowing God Through Sacred Scripture

USCCB Curriculum Framework | Core Subject 1

This text examines Divine Revelation, presenting Sacred Scripture as the inspired Word of God unveiled gradually throughout the history of salvation. It examines how the Magisterium of the Church transmits the Deposit of Faith infallibly and how our understanding of God’s Revelation leads us to a more intimate relationship with the three Persons of the Blessed Trinity in this life and to eternal life in Heaven. It also explains how to read the Bible, emphasizing how the New Testament in Christ fulfills the covenants and promises that God made with his people in the Old Testament.

Textbook: P# 45013 | Hardcover | 292 pp. | 8.5” x 11” $30.00

Textbook: P# 31741 | Paperback | 292 pp. | 8.5” x 11” $25.00

The Blessed Trinity and Our Christian Vocation

Rev. James Socias

USCCB Curriculum Framework | Core Subject II

This text presents the Blessed Trinity—one God in three divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—which is the central mystery of the Christian Faith. We are called to know and love God and to share in his divine life. Following the Nicene Creed and based on Sacred Scripture, the role of each Person of the Blessed Trinity in the plan of salvation and the Christian life is examined. It also looks at the role of the Blessed Virgin Mary as the Mother of God, Mediatrix, and Intercessor for all people.

Textbook: P# 45044 | Hardcover | 272 pp. | 8.5" x 11" | $30.00
Textbook: P# 31802 | Paperback | 272 pp. | 8.5" x 11" | $25.00

The Mystery of Redemption and Christian Discipleship (Second Edition)

Rev. Peter V. Armenio

USCCB Curriculum Framework | Core Subject III

This text examines Original Sin; the meaning of redemption; and how the salvific promise made to our first parents is fulfilled in the life, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Jesus Christ. It explains how the Church continues the redemptive mission of Christ in the world today and how his redemption is applied in our own lives. The text also looks at how we are called to be formed in the image of Christ, who is the exemplar of the Christian life, and to cooperate with God’s grace in every instance of our lives.

Textbook: P# 31062 | Hardcover | 242 pp. | 8.5" x 11" | $30.00

The Church: Sacrament of Salvation
USCCB Curriculum Framework | Core Subject IV

The Church, established by Jesus Christ and guided by the Holy Spirit, continues the salvific ministry of Christ in the world today; thus, the Church is both the Sacrament of Communion and the Sacrament of Salvation. This text presents the mission of the Church; her infallible teaching authority; the Sacraments as the primary means of transmitting God’s grace; the role of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of the Church; the universal call to holiness; and the four marks of the Church.

Textbook: P# 45099 | Hardcover | 310 pp. | 8.5" x 11"  $30.00
Textbook: P# 31789 | Paperback | 310 pp. | 8.5" x 11"  $25.00

The Sacraments: Source of Our Life in Christ
USCCB Curriculum Framework | Core Subject V

Jesus Christ instituted the Sacraments and entrusted them to his Church as a primary means of transmitting grace, which helps us to live the Christian life. This text includes a chapter on each of the Seven Sacraments, explains how it is celebrated, and describes its purpose in the Christian life as an intimate encounter with Jesus Christ. It also examines Christian liturgy as well as popular prayers, devotions, and sacramentals.

Textbook: P# 77928 | Hardcover | 255 pp. | 8.5" x 11"  $30.00
Textbook: P# 31819 | Paperback | 255 pp. | 8.5" x 11"  $25.00

Our Moral Life in Christ
Semester Edition

USCCB Curriculum Framework | Core Subject VI

A well-formed conscience is essential to make moral decisions. This text aids the formation of our consciences by presenting an overview of the moral teachings of the Catholic Church. Following the Ten Commandments as elevated and perfected by Jesus Christ and the Beatitudes, it shows how we, aided by God’s grace, can imitate the life of Christ in every circumstance of our lives. It examines topics important to social justice and the sacredness of human life.

Textbook: P# 77690 | Hardcover | 304 pp. | 8.5" x 11"  $30.00

Understanding the Scriptures
Semester Edition

USCCB Curriculum Framework | Elective A

Sacred Scripture is an inspired and infallible record of God’s self-Revelation to his people and the gradual unfolding of his plan of salvation. This text explains how to read Sacred Scripture with the Church and presents overviews of the books of the Bible and their importance to the teachings of the Church. It also shows how the covenants and promises that God made with his people in the Old Testament are fulfilled by the New Covenant in Jesus Christ, who is the Word of God.

Textbook: P# 45129 | Hardcover | 342 pp. | 8.5" x 11"  $30.00
Textbook: P# 31796 | Paperback | 342 pp. | 8.5" x 11"  $25.00

The History of the Church
Semester Edition
USCCB Curriculum Framework | Elective B

This text begins with the story of God’s definitive intervention into human history in the Person of his Son and continues through his Church to the present day. In his plan of salvation, God sent the Holy Spirit to act through members of the Church to further his salvific mission to the whole world. It examines the lives of the saints and how they—by cooperating with God’s grace in response to their divine vocations—helped to shape the life of the Church as well as Christian society and culture.

Textbook: P# 45150 | Hardcover | 466 pp. | 8.5” x 11” $39.00

The Social Doctrine of the Catholic Church
USCCB Curriculum Framework | Elective C

This text introduces students to the social teachings of the Catholic Church as presented in the Catechism of the Catholic Church and in the church’s Magisterial documents from Rerum Novarum through Deus Caritas Est. The student will learn how Christ’s concern for others, especially the poor and needy, is present today in the Church’s social doctrine and mission and how he or she can contribute to this mission in everyday life.

Textbook: P# 45969 | Hardcover | 228 pp. | 8.5” x 11” $30.00
Textbook: P# 31833 | Paperback | 228 pp. | 8.5” x 11” $25.00

Vocations and the Universal Call to Holiness
USCCB Curriculum Framework | Elective D

In Baptism, God calls each of us to holiness on earth and to eternal life with him in heaven. This text examines the universal call to holiness and its importance in the Christian life. It also analyzes the unique plan that God has for every person in the vocations to Marriage, Holy Orders, the consecrated life, or the committed single life. Finally, it explains how each person can prayerfully discern the will of God in his or her own life.

Textbook: P# 31024 | Hardcover | 270 pp. | 8.5” x 11” $30.00
Textbook: P# 31840 | Paperback | 270 pp. | 8.5” x 11” $25.00

Ecumenism and Interreligious Dialogue
USCCB Curriculum Framework | Elective E

This text examines the teachings of the Catholic faith on God’s desire to unite all people to himself and to each other through his Church. Focusing primarily on the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the documents of the Second Vatican Council, it includes both ecumenism—action toward reuniting separated Christians—and interfidelity dialogue—relations with non-Christians.

Textbook: P# 45976 | Hardcover | 320 pp. | 8.5” x 11” $30.00
Textbook: P# 31826 | Paperback | 320 pp. | 8.5” x 11” $25.00

Faith and Revelation: Knowing God Through Sacred Scripture
Dr. Scott Hahn
This text examines Divine Revelation, presenting Sacred Scripture as the inspired Word of God. It examines how the Church transmits the Deposit of Faith infallibly and how our understanding of God’s Revelation leads to a more intimate relationship with him. It also explains how to read the Bible, emphasizing that the New Testament in Christ fulfills the covenants and promises that God made with his people in the Old Testament.

The Blessed Trinity and Our Christian Vocation
Rev. James Socias
This text presents the Blessed Trinity—one God in three divine Persons—as the central mystery of the Faith. Following the Nicene Creed and based on Sacred Scripture, the role of each Person of the Blessed Trinity in the plan of salvation and the Christian life is examined. It also looks at the role of the Blessed Virgin Mary as the Mother of God, Mediatrix, and Intercessor for all people.

The Mystery of Redemption and Christian Discipleship
Rev. Peter V. Armenio
This text examines Original Sin; the meaning of redemption; and how the salvific promise made to our first parents is fulfilled in Jesus Christ. It explains how the Church continues the redemptive mission of Christ in the world today and how his redemption is applied in our own lives. The text also looks at how we are called to imitate Christ and to cooperate with God’s grace in our lives.

The Sacrament of Communion

Rev. James Socias

The Sacrament of Communion presents a thorough preparation of the celebration of Communion for Grades 7 to 9. This new textbook will help guide the confirmand through prayer, discernment, and a deeper conversion of the faith. Each chapter includes tools—various exercises and activities—designed to help foster meaningful discussion with the confirmand’s parents and sponsor during this preparation.

Topics include Church teaching about Communion, the Sacraments, the Blessed Trinity, the gifts of the Holy Spirit, the Christian life, and how to live as a witness to Jesus Christ in the world.

Includes references from Sacred Scripture and the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Textbook: P# 31734 | Paperback | 282 pp. | 8.5” x 11” $29.00

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit: An Illustrated Book is published by MTF as a companion to The Sacrament of Communion. It is intended for younger confirmands, their parents, and their sponsors, inspiring them to live out their Catholic faith in a bolder, more powerful way — preparing them for the New Evangelization.

The gifts are presented as stories, each one highlighting a particular saint who exemplified that particular gift in his or her life. Led by the examples of these saints, we can learn how to live a Christian life through the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

After exploring this book, you will be able to answer these questions:

- What are the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, and what can they do for me?
- Where do the gifts of the Holy Spirit come from?
- Why are the gifts of the Holy Spirit necessary?
- How do the gifts of the Holy Spirit help me to grow in holiness — to be a true Christian as God intends me to be?

The Sacrament of First Holy Communion

Rev. James Socias

This textbook has been prepared as a catechesis for parents and children so that both the parents and their child may engage in fruitful dialogue throughout this important spiritual journey. Why does God love each of us so much? How has God taught his people to love him and follow him? How does God lead us to heaven?

The answers to these questions are to be found in this book. You will learn why God sent his Son, Jesus Christ, to save us all, and how his saving work is still happening today through the Church and her Sacraments.

These Sacramental Preparation books will help guide you through the spiritual, mental, and religious formation to participate fully in the Church’s Sacraments.

Roman Missal (Third Edition)

Midwest Theological Forum has designed the Roman Missal, Third Edition, to ensure that every element is durable and practical—yet dignified, beautiful, and suitable for divine worship. The instruction concerning an altar missal from the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments states that it “should be marked by such a dignity that the exterior appearance of the book itself will lead the faithful to a greater reverence for the word of God and for sacred realities” (Liturgiam Authenticam, 120). For this reason the quality of paper and binding as well as the visual impact of vibrant, full-color illustrations; musical notations; and fonts for texts have been considered to produce this dignified altar missal.

Conformed to Christ Crucified: Meditations on Priestly Life and Ministry, Vol. I
Rev. Joseph Carola
This collection of meditations is pertinent to the formation, life, and ministry of priests. Each theme is one aspect of a common, unifying vision: priestly conformity to the crucified Christ. It calls the seminarian and priest to be one with the risen Christ crucified for God’s glory and the salvation of souls.
P# 91529 | Paperback | 164 pp. | 5.5” x 8.5” $12.00

Conformed to Christ Crucified: More Meditations on Priestly Life and Ministry, Vol. II
Rev. Joseph Carola
This second collection of meditations covers even more themes pertinent to the formation, life, and ministry of the ordained priest. Like Volume One, each theme is one aspect a common, unifying vision: priestly conformity to the Crucified Christ. Through the Sacrament of Holy Orders, the priest—in the depths of his being—is sacramentally conformed to Christ the Head. This book calls both the seminarian who seeks ordination and the priest already ordained to embrace wholeheartedly the cruciform reality of the priestly vocation: to be made one with the risen Christ Crucified for God’s greater glory and the salvation of souls.

Holiness for Everyone: The Practical Spirituality of St. Josemaria Escriva
Eric Sammons
The author tells how twentieth-century Spanish priest and canonized saint Josemaria Escriva, the founder of Opus Dei, recovered the message of the universal call to holiness. Declared the saint of ordinary life by St. John Paul II, St. Josemaria developed a spirituality directed toward the sanctity of every man and woman. His legacy is the belief that each of us can, by God's grace, achieve holiness through the course of our ordinary life and work.

Footprints in the Snow:
A Pictorial Biography of St. Josemaria Escriva
Dennis M. Helming
"Here is a truly remarkable story, well told in this book. The growth and development of God’s Work which is also Man’s; the realization in one’s mind that what appear to be ordinary things of Time are images of the extraordinary things of Eternity. And behind it all, one mind that will not be diverted from its purpose; one soul gathering to itself others similarly disposed—Monsignor Escrivá’s." — Malcolm Muggeridge

Critical Introduction to Natural Right

Javier Hervada

Javier Hervada proposes what he labels as "classical juridical realism," which considers the notion of right as that which is just to be the focal point of the juridical domain. Written for didactic purposes, this short book is highly original. In fact, it represents a decisive turning point in Hervada’s intellectual itinerary and therefore remains a foundational text for the whole of his juridical thought.

La Santísima Trinidad

La Santísima Trinidad se toma una mirada en profundidad en el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad como se revela en la Sagrada Escritura. Análisis de la vida divina de Dios Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo, presenta una visión detallada de la persona de Jesucristo como el cumplimiento de la Revelación Divina, el papel del Espíritu Santo en la vida del cristiano, y como podemos conocer al Padre a través del Hijo. También se examina la vocación y como Dios nos invita a estar en comunión con él.

This book takes an in-depth look at the mystery of the Holy Trinity as revealed in Sacred Scripture. Analysis of the divine life of God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit presents a detailed vision of the person of Jesus Christ as the fulfillment of Divine Revelation, the role of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Christian, and how we can know the Father through the Son. It also examines the vocation and how God invites us to be in communion with him.

La Iglesia
Sacramento de Salvación
Este texto, escrito por el Dr. Scott Hahn, presenta cómo la Iglesia, establecida por Jesucristo y guiada por el Espíritu Santo, continúa el ministerio salvífico de Cristo en el mundo de hoy. Los temas incluyen la Santísima Virgen María, Madre de la Iglesia, la llamada universal a la santidad, y las enseñanzas de la Iglesia. This text, written by Dr. Scott Hahn, presents how the Church, established by Jesus Christ and guided by the Holy Spirit, continues the saving ministry of Christ in the world today. Topics include the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, the universal call to holiness, and the teachings of the Church.

Los sacramentos
Fuente de nuestra vida en Cristo
Jesus Christ instituted the Sacraments and entrusted them to his Church as a primary means of transmitting grace, which helps us to live the Christian life. This text presents each of the Seven Sacraments, explains how they are celebrated, and describes their purpose in the Christian life as an intimate encounter with Christ. It also examines Christian liturgy as well as popular prayers, devotions, and sacramentals.

Nuestra Vida Moral en Cristo
Edición Parroquial
Este texto ayuda a la formación de nuestras conciencias presentando una visión general de las enseñanzas morales de la Iglesia Católica. Siguiendo los Diez Mandamientos y las Bienaventuranzas, el texto muestra cómo nosotros, ayudados por la gracia de Dios, podemos imitar la vida de Cristo en cada circunstancia de nuestras vidas. This text helps the formation of our consciences presenting an overview of the moral teachings of the Catholic Church. Following the Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes, the text shows how we, assisted by the grace of God, can imitate the life of Christ in every circumstance of our lives.
Este texto comienza con la intervención definitiva de Dios en la historia humana en la Persona de su Hijo y continúa hasta nuestros días. Muestra cómo Dios ha actuado a través de los miembros de la Iglesia para promover su misión salvífica. Examina la vida de los santos y cómo ellos - al cooperar con la gracia de Dios - ayudaron a moldear la vida de la Iglesia, así como la sociedad y la cultura cristianas.

This text begins with God’s definitive intervention into human history in the Person of his Son and continues to the present day. It shows how God has acted through members of the Church to further his salvific mission. It examines the lives of the saints and how they—by cooperating with God’s grace—helped to shape the life of the Church as well as Christian society and culture.

Ever since the first time that I ordered my Daily Roman Missal many years ago, I have enjoyed the mass more fully by following the mass step by step just as the celebrant does using the Roman Missal on the Altar. The Daily Roman Missal has enhanced my enjoyment of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and could not imagine attending mass without my Daily Roman Missal. I would highly recommend this missal.

MICHAEL J.
from Santa Fe, New Mexico

“Maintaining clarity and readability, the second edition goes into greater depth on many issues, especially creation, the fall of man, prayer, miracles, and eschatology. It engages a wide range of scientific literature and brings new scientific discoveries into dialogue with the great thinkers of the Catholic intellectual tradition, especially St. Thomas Aquinas. The reader will come away with a deeper understanding of the Catholic faith, of science, and a greater appreciation of their harmony!”

STEPHEN M. BARR, PH.D.
Professor, Department of Physics and Astronomy,
University of Delaware

“Amazingly thorough and precise in its treatment of issues that are often on the minds of young people, and indeed on the minds of many adults, believers and non-believers alike. This book should have a wide readership both inside Catholic schools and far beyond the classroom.”

JOHN CAVADINI
Director, McGrath Institute for Church Life
Professor of Theology
University of Notre Dame

“This is the rare book that engages modern science and the Catholic faith in a serious dialogue, yet leaves them both enriched by the encounter. No student will come away from this text without a profound appreciation for the deep synergy between faith and science.”

DANIEL KUEBLER
Dean, School of Natural and Applied Science
Franciscan University of Steubenville
Author, The Evolution Controversy
“Francisco Fernandez de Carvajal, popular for his books of meditation entitled "In Conversation with God," has now written a life of Christ, and it has been translated into English. It is rooted in Scripture, and he gives references to the corresponding passages related to what he is writing about from each of the Gospels. He cites the Catechism of the Catholic Church and draws on Pope-emeritus Benedict’s "Jesus of Nazareth." The illustrations, most of them paintings by James Tissot, are realistic and sometimes moving. There are a number of maps, and several helpful appendices.”

MSGR. JAMES
from Menlo Park, California

“I love this book for lots of reasons. From the Chapter 1 title 'How to be a Better Catholic,' to the vast quantity of prayers and instructions, to its size, small enough to be carried in a pocket! It not only has prayers and discussions on prayers, it has directions for Reconciliation, for Adoration, and more. I'm a youth director and this is definitely going to become the confirmation present for my parish!”

MARY
from Fort Walton Beach, Florida

“With increased emphasis on Bible study within the Catholic Church, the lack of a good study Bible has become increasingly problematic. Coupling the Ignatius Bible, which is a very readable and faithful version, with helpful and dependable study aids finally solves the problem.”

CATHY DUFFY

“The Didache Bible has quickly become my new go-to source for Everything You Could Ever Want to Know About the Scriptures. What makes The Didache Bible so helpful is the wide array of extra features which enhance the study of Scripture, such as a guide explaining How to Read the Bible. It reminds us why we should read it, and suggests a reading plan that fits our busy lives.”

Year of St. Joseph

The new Apostolic Letter entitled Patris corde (“With a Father’s Heart”) marks the 150th anniversary of Blessed Pope Pius IX’s declaration of St Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. To celebrate the anniversary, Pope Francis has proclaimed a special “Year of St Joseph,” beginning on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception 2020 and extending to the same feast in 2021.
Is scientific reason compatible with religious faith?
Is it possible to believe in miracles and also the integrity of nature?
How do spiritual realities, such as the soul, fit into the world of matter described by physics and biology?

Explore answers to these questions and more in this new edition! Dr. Baglow unveils the history of science as something that grew out of, rather than in opposition to, the Catholic faith.
